JOINING A NEW SCHOOL

My name is Pamela. From my childhood up to the age of eight years I had never stayed away from my parents. The day my parents suggested to take me to a boarding school, it gave me sleepless nights. I started imagining how life would go on when my parents were away. Daddy bought all the school requirements from City Shoppers Supermarket. Thereafter, mummy took the items to Mr. Byansi for labelling so that they could not get lost while at school.

When schools opened, all the items were packed in the suitcase and daddy drove off to school. At school we were given a warm welcome by the team we found. I liked the environment and the newly painted buildings. My new class teacher, Ms. Nakate checked my items and gave me a school mother. I was comforted by my new school mother and this made me like the school.
