Report

During the month of June, the company dealt in five types of produce: maize, beans, rice, sim-sim and ground nuts. The majority client countries have been Zambia, Zimbabwe, Malawi and Mozambique.

The quantities exported are detailed below:

Code Number	Item	Quantity ('000Kg)	Local cost price per Kg (U. Shs)
001	Maize grain	200	200
002	Beans	500	180
003	Rice	800	650
004	Sim-sim	100	800
005	Ground nuts	650	850

Special report

The price of maize went up relatively because of the dry season.

The rest of the items were about the same price as last month.

From its very earliest day, the internet has been primarily concerned with one task, making it easier for people to communicate with one another using computers. The internet was created to let university researchers share their thoughts, work, and resources and for military people to communicate with each other in case of war and even, theoretically a nuclear attack.

TUBERCULOSIS (TB)IN AIDS

The global war on AIDS could be lost if it ignores tuberculosis, often a death sentence for people infected with HIV, former South African president Nelson Mandela warned at a global AIDS conference recently held in Bangkok. The world has made defeating AIDS its top priority. This is a blessing, but TB remains ignored, said Mandela. He steered clear of the controversy to focus on the plight of millions suffering from HIV and TB.

About 14 million people are infected with HIV and TB, 70% living in sub-Saharan Africa, the region hardest hit by HIV/AIDS, which has killed 20 million people worldwide. HIV, the virus which causes AIDS, destroys the immune system and makes patients more vulnerable to diseases such as TB, an infectious illness that accounts for up to one-third of all HIV/AIDS deaths.

"We cannot win the battle against AIDS if we do not also fight TB. TB is too often a death sentence for people with AIDS. It does not have to be this way", Mandela said. He said resources for detecting and treating TB were woefully short despite the world having had a cure for it more than 50 years ago.

Type the text below using a word processing program

CHOOSING WORD PROCESSING SOFTWARE

Word processing is using the computer to enter, store, manipulate and print in letters, reports, and books and so on. Once you have used word processing, you will probably wonder (like a million others before you) how in the world you ever survived without it.

As more word processing packages come on the market, choosing the right software can become confusing. Nevertheless, there is probably a word processing package that will serve your needs. As you begin looking, ask yourself these questions:

- I What types of documents am I now producing?
- II what types of features do I need?
- Want?

Document types can range from simple letters and memos to proposals, reports, legal documents, books, newsletters, scientific papers, form letters and so on. The point is, match the features you need with the features you need with the features in the software package. For example, if you write articles that require references, you will need the footnoting feature; if you develop a newsletter, having the multicolumn layout feature would be handy; if scientific notation is needed, you will want superscripts (X^2+Y^2) and subscripts (A_{21}); and if you send "personalized" form letters the mail-merge feature is a necessity.

A number of add-on programs are available to enhance the functionality of word processing packages. These include:

- On-line thesaurus
- Spelling checker
- Grammar checker
- Style checker
- Idea processor (outliner)

What you can do with word processing is limited only by your imagination and willingness to learn the system. Good luck in your Computer-assisted writing adventures-now and in the future!

- (ii) Insert in the header the word: Tips on the left hand corner and "Word processing" on the right hand corner.
- (iii) Bold the heading font size 22 point, underline and centre it.
- (iv) Block indent paragraph one by 1 inch in the right and left margins.
- (v) In the paragraph starting with "Document" bold the second sentence.
- (vi) Make 2 the superscript of X and Y in the expression (X^2+Y^2) and 21 the superscript of A in the expression (A_{21}).
- (vii) Insert bullets on the list of functionality of word processing packages given in the text.
- (viii) Insert a footnote of your name and index number on the left and page number on the right hand corner.
- (x) Save the work as choosing software and make a print out.

Using a word processor of your choice typeset the following passage as it is.

SAVOURY POTATO CAKES

Ingredients:

- 500g cooked and smashed potatoes
- 120g grated cheese
- Salt and pepper
- 60g flour
- Cooking oil
- 1 table spoon Royco Mchuzi mix

Mix the smashed potatoes well with the Royco, flour, salt and pepper.

Roll out onto a flour board and cut into rounds using a biscuit cutter. Heat the oil in a frying pan and fry the cakes until golden brown.

Remove from the fat and drain. Sprinkle cheese on top of each cake and put under grill until golden brown too.

Serve hot. If you do not have a grill, put the cakes on a clean chopping board or metal tray. Put large, hot coals on a wire rack or mesh and hold it closely over the cakes until the cheese melts and turns golden brown.

You can now serve 6.
